

This is “Peer Counseling Pause” with Reova Meredith

Delayed Answers to Prayer

“Sometimes God delays the answers to our prayer in order to produce a greater maturity and fruitfulness in us. God’s first priority in our lives is to make us fruitful – not to make us happy or comfortable”

The three effects of delayed answers are:

- 1. Brings purified faith
- 2. Kindles our love to new depths of passion and maturity
- 3. Develops Christ likeness in our lives

During this time of waiting is when the internal work is being done, preparing us for what is ahead.

You wait and wait and wait. But when He finally moves, He does more in one hour than you could accomplish in a lifetime.

Waiting transports us into God’s time zone. God can out wait anybody.